

SARANAC LAKE WINTER CARNIVAL MEMORIES

A book by HUNGRY BEAR PUBLISHING, edited by Andy Flynn

RULES & DIRECTIONS

Submissions and Entry Forms must be received by Feb. 28, 2011 (deadline extended in Aug. 2010)
Mail the filled-out Entry Form to: Winter Carnival Memories, Hungry Bear Publishing, 40 McClelland St., Saranac Lake, NY 12983. [Submissions can be sent snail mail, but we prefer email; see directions.]

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY WINTER CARNIVAL MEMORY?

Every good story has a theme. Pick one memorable moment from a past Saranac Lake Winter Carnival, good or bad, and explain why it was so memorable. Give details, give names. Describe the scene. How did it affect you or others? Were you a king or queen? If you choose to write about a Winter Carnival artifact, explain where you got it or how it was used and submit a photo.

RULES

- No plagiarism: All essays must be written by the entrant or the submission will be disqualified.
- Essays can be any length (within reason). [changed from the original rules in Aug. 2010]
- Essays must be spell checked prior to submission.
- A maximum of two photos may be submitted, with the understanding that only one will most likely be used.
- Submissions may be rejected for any reason, including space issues, quality and content.
- No profanity or vulgar content will be accepted.
- Children old enough to write their own essays need to send submissions with parental consent.
- Each essay and photo must identify the year of the Winter Carnival memory.

SUBMISSION DIRECTIONS

JUDGING THE ENTRIES

Not all submissions will be accepted for "Saranac Lake Winter Carnival Memories." The editor will determine whether the essays and photos are worthy of being published by using the following criteria:

1. Quality of writing (spelling, capitalization, grammar, etc.)
2. Interest (Is it interesting to read?)
3. Quality of photograph (Is it in focus?)
4. Accuracy (There should be no factual errors.)
